

Thalia Spanish Theatre and Teatro Circulo Present La Dama Duende

Thalia Spanish Theatre and Teatro Circulo are proud to present the classical Spanish comedy of errors La Dama Duende, by one of the leading playwrights of the seventeenth century, Pedro Calderon de la Barca. Starring in this whimsical play is ACE-award-winning actress

Virginia Rambal, with Axel Cintron, Jose Cheo Oliveras, Eva Vasquez, Anabel Lopez, Roberto Rodriguez, Juan Villarreal and Wanda Arriaga, under the direction of Carmelo Santana-Mojica. Musical direction is by Axel Cintron. Sets are by Guillermo Escudero, costumes by Harry Nadal and lights by Roberto Rodriguez.

The "dama Duende" is a woman who leaves anonymous love letters to the man with whom she is in love. Her identity remains such a mystery to him that he actually doubts her existence; he suspects her to be a ghost, a spirit. The lovers finally unite, but only after a series of hilarious entanglements. Unthought-of couples are formed thanks to this confusion of identities. In the end, more than one pair will be ready to head to the altar.

Performances are on Saturdays at 8 PM and Sundays at 4 PM, from January 20th to February 25th. Tickets are $13 general admission; $10 for students and senior citizens. The play will be performed in Spanish, with an English synopsis available at the box office.

After a series of completely sold-out performances Thalia Spanish Theatre is proud to extend Flamenco with Andrea del Conte Danza Espana. The passionate art form of Spain comes alive in this powerful program. From bulerias to fandangos, feel the soul of a nation expressed in song and dance. Knowledge of Spanish is not necessary.

Performances are on Fridays only at 8 PM, from January 19 to February 23, 1996. Tickets are $15 general admission and $13 for students and senior citizens.

For all productions, we have special rates for groups of 10 or more.

Reservations for all the shows are recommended; please call (718) 729-3880.

Thalia Spanish Theatre is located at 41-17 Greenpoint Avenue in Sunnyside, Queens. Take the Flushing line (No. 7) to 40th Street/Lowery Station, or the Q32 or Q60 buses to Queens Boulevard and 41st Street. Greenpoint Avenue is two blocks south of Queens Boulevard.

