THE CLASSICAL SPANISH COMEDY of errors, "La Dama Duende," begins a six-weekend run tomorrow at the Thalia Spanish Theater.

It was written by Pedro Calderon de la Barca, one of the leading playwrights of the 17th century.

In this whimsical play, the "dama duende" is a woman who leaves anonymous love letters to the man who is the object of her affection. Her identity is so much of a mystery that he doubts that she actually exists. He begins to believe her to be a ghost or possibly a spirit. Yet after a few mixups and hilarious entanglements they do unite.

The play is performed in Spanish and there is an English synopsis available. Performances are tomorrow at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 4 p.m. Tickets are $13. The Thalia Spanish Theater is at 41-17 Greenpoint Ave., Sunnyside.

For reservations and information, call (718) 729-3880.

COMEDY: Jose Cheo Oliveras, Virginia Rambal and Axel Cintron (l. to r.) in "La Dama Duende."
